

"WORK" IS SLOGAN OF MISS SASAKI

An Island Girl Endowed With Energy,
Who Wants Yosemite Trip

Undaunted by the lead of more than one hundred thousand votes of two competing contestants, Miss Emma Sasaki, a Yosemite-California trip aspirant in District 1 tirelessly continues her campaign for subscriptions and votes.

Miss Sasaki is a candidate who did not attract much attention, except from personal friends, who knew the resources of her determination, until several weeks after the contest began, and then she suddenly jumped to third place. This position she has steadily held, excepting one occasion, when replaced for the period between two counts. What other candidates count as discouragements, Miss Sasaki takes as a spur to renewed energy.

She is an island girl. Among the people of these islands she has scores of friends who are striving to aid her in her ambition for a trip to the States, and the number of subscriptions she has turned in testifies that their interest is not confined alone to well wishes. So constant and steadfast in her canvass has she been that no candidate incites so many inquiries as to her chance for success. Though lacking in that support that brings votes to some candidates by five-year subscriptions, Miss Sasaki overcomes this by getting five subscriptions to some contestants' one.

The character of Miss Sasaki's competency is perhaps shown in no better way than by her attitude in continuing her support of only one chaperone candidate. Offers to exchange votes tempt her in no manner.

"Even though," she says, "I should put in five votes for every one I get in return, I will vote until the end for the same chaperone candidate."

Miss Sasaki has but one word to explain her success up to the present, and that is "work." "I want the trip, and I am willing to work to get it," she says.

Contest Closes May 28, 8 p. m.

Saturday, May the twenty-eighth, is the time set for the close of the contest and all votes and subscriptions MUST be in the Bulletin office on that date. The closing hour will be at 8 o'clock p. m. on May

Washington, April 6.—It will be entirely practicable to provide adequate defenses for the Panama canal at comparatively moderate cost. This is the conclusion of the Panama fortification board, some members of which have just returned from Panama. The areas to be set aside as military reservation for defensive purposes were determined upon and sites were selected for quartering troops. Nearly all the areas desired are now the property of the United States.
